

Student Prizes

A number of student prizes are awarded each year. The prizes currently established are:

Prize Name:	Awarded to:	Prize:
Advance Brighter Futures Exceptional Contribution Prize	This prize is to be awarded to a final year student from one of the eligible programmes listed below: - Diploma of Higher Education Health and Social Wellbeing (including with Foundation Year) - BSc (Hons) Mental Health and Wellbeing (including with Foundation Year) The prize will be awarded to a student who has made an exceptional contribution to the field of wellbeing/ mental health through either volunteering or enterprise. Factors to consider include but are not limited to: - Going above and beyond in their volunteer role to provide service of an exceptional standard that has enhanced the experience of beneficiaries in a mental health or wellbeing related area. - Making a significant contribution to a not for profit enterprise that has wellbeing/mental health as part of its mission.	University prize certificate £50 voucher
Alex Rouse Award	Up to two final year students on the BSc (Hons) Occupational Therapy programme (one from the full time route, and one from the part time route) that have shown commitment to the profession and its values and philosophy, been supportive to staff, students and patients/clients, has been an excellent facilitator of team work, recognising everyone's positive characteristics and encouraging the use of them, is intuitive, has a genuine caring interest in people and an awareness of the appropriate use of humour.	University prize certificate £25 Voucher
Alpha Kappa Alpha Prize	The Alpha Kappa Alpha prize will be presented to an MPhil or PhD graduate from the subject area of Management, for the potential impact that his/her MPhil/PhD thesis will have in the community (action-oriented and or applied research) and is based on the potential impact of the thesis on the welfare of others or on its applied contributions.	The prize will consist of a £100 monetary prize, a University prize certificate and attendance at North Wales Business School's seminar, where the prize winner will have a 20-minute slot in which to present his/her MPhil/PhD thesis.

Alpha Omega Alpha Prize	The Alpha Omega Alpha prize will be presented to an MPhil or PhD graduate from the subject area of Management, for the outstanding impact his or her MPhil or PhD thesis has had on the relevant area of research (theoretical and methodical oriented research).	The prize will consist of a £100 monetary prize, a University prize certificate and attendance at North Wales Business School's seminar, where the prize winner will have a 20-minute slot in which to present his/her MPhil/PhD thesis.
Animal and Equine Student Endeavour Prize	The prize shall be awarded annually to up to three eligible students studying on programmes listed below. • BSc (Hons) Animal Behaviour, Welfare and Conservation (Top-Up) • BSc (Hons) Animal Behaviour, Welfare and Conservation Science (including Foundation Year) • BSc (Hons) Equine Science and Welfare Management (inc Foundation Year) • BSc (Hons) Equine Science and Welfare Management • FdSc Animal Studies • FdSc Applied Animal Behaviour, Welfare and Conservation (inc Foundation Year) • FdSc Veterinary Nursing • FdSc Canine Behaviour Training and Performance • FdSc Practical Wildlife Management The prize will be awarded to students who have demonstrated an outstanding contribution to the learning experience of other students, or an outstanding effort in overcoming personal difficulties to achieve his/her award.	University prize certificate £25 Voucher

Art and Design Final Project Prize	The prize will be awarded annually to a Level 6 (BA (Hons) student who has been nominated and is enrolled on one of the following programmes of study; • BA (Hons) Fine Art (and Foundation Year) • BA (Hons) Design: Film and Photography • BA (Hons) Comics (and Foundation Year) • BA (Hons) Illustration (and Foundation Year) • BA (Hons) Applied Art (and Foundation Year) • BA (Hons) Animation (and Foundation Year) • BA (Hons) Photography and Film (and Foundation Year) • BA (Hons) Graphic Design (and Foundation Year) • BA (Hons) Product Design Or any previous course titles relating to these areas. The award will be determined upon non marks based criteria; based on the quality and originality of the student's final year project in any of the disciplines within Art and Design. Selection will be based on the quality and originality of their final year project work in comparison with their peers on the course.	£100 voucher to spend in the University's Art Shop and a University prize certificate.
Blodwen and Christmas Evans Memorial Prize	The final year student who has achieved the highest performance of all undergraduate students graduating within that year from programmes closely associated with music, as indicated below: • BA (Hons) Media Production • BA (Hons) Media Production (Including Foundation Year) • BSc (Hons) Music and Sound Technology • BSc (Hons) Music and Sound Technology (Including Foundation Year)	Prize cheque to the value of £100 and a University prize certificate.
British Psychological Society Final Year Undergraduate Prize for Overall Achievement	The prize is to be awarded to an undergraduate graduating student enrolled on the BSc (Hons) Psychology (including Foundation Year) programme who has achieved the best overall performance of the cohort for that year.	A letter of congratulations signed by Sarb Bajwa; CEO A £30 gift voucher 1 years free graduate membership to the society A University prize certificate.

Celtic Prize for Education	The prize shall be awarded to the undergraduate or postgraduate student studying on an Education programme as listed below who has demonstrated the most outstanding performance in professional practice of all the students graduating in each year. • Certificate in Education (PcET) • Postgraduate Certificate in Education (PcET) • Professional Graduate Certificate in Education (PcET) • BA (Hons) Education Studies • BA (Hons) Early Childhood Studies • BA (Hons) Working with Children and Families (including with Foundation Year) • BA (Hons) Education (inc Foundation Year) • MA Education • MA Education (Learning and Teaching) • MA Education (Leadership) • MA Education (Counselling Skills for Education) • MA Education (ALN-Dyslexia) • National MA Education (Wales)	Prize cheque not to exceed the value of £50 and a University prize certificate.
Childhood and Family Studies Level 6 Academic Achievement Prize	This prize is to be awarded to the student graduating with the highest overall marks from any of the programmes listed below: • BA(Hons) Working with Children and Families (including with Foundation Year) • BA(Hons) Education (including with Foundation Year)	University prize certificate. £25 Voucher
Chris Watson Award	This prize is to be awarded to a final year student (Level 6) on the BSc (Hons) Physiotherapy programme considering factors such as: • Commitment to the profession, using the evidence base to underpin practice. • Demonstrating an innovative, creative and curious mind-set. • Very supportive to staff, students and patients/clients. • An excellent facilitator of team work. • An excellent listener, recognising everyone's positive characteristics. • An excellent guide to others, is intuitive and has a genuine caring interest in people.	The prize shall consist of a £20 book voucher and a University prize certificate.
The Colin Jackson Award for Excellence in Sport and Exercise Science	This prize is to be awarded annually to a final year student (Level 6 or 7) on the below eligible programmes: • BSc (Hons) Sport and Exercise Science (including with Foundation Year) • BSc (Hons) Applied Sport and Exercise Sciences • MSc Sport and Exercise Sciences (Clinical Exercise Science) • MSc Sport and Exercise Sciences (Sport Performance Science) The prize is to be awarded to a student who has made a measurable positive impact by volunteering to support programme teams and external clients at the Wrexham Centre for Performance (a consultancy service offered by the University) with various types of fitness and health testing. Factors to be considered include: • Frequency of volunteering – students who consistently volunteer to help support a broad spectrum of clients such as clubs, teams, athletes & individuals • Competency in the delivery of various tests - putting theory into practice to gain real life experience of the knowledge acquired from their course. • Ability to build relationships and rapport with clients – being a people person with the ability to communicate clearly, putting them at ease etc.	The prize shall consist of a £50 voucher and a University prize certificate.

Claire Carlin-Fowler Award	The prize will be awarded annually to a Level 5 or 6 student who has been nominated, has completed the Level 5 Practice Learning Opportunity and is enrolled on BA (Hons) Social Work programme of study. The award will be determined upon non marks based criteria; based upon a student who, like Claire, has shown outstanding commitment to social work practice whilst on their practice learning opportunities at Levels 5 and/or 6, and overcome personal adversity in order to continue on the programme, showing courage and determination.	The prize shall consist of a £30 book voucher and a University prize certificate.
Criminology and Criminal Justice Award for Positive Citizenship and Academic Achievement	To be eligible for the award, the student must have successfully passed and progressed their respective year of study on the BA (Hons) Criminology and Criminal Justice Degree programme i.e. this award can be given to a student in any year of study across Levels 4-6. The award acknowledges student dedication, civic commitment, positive attitude and academic accomplishments and will be awarded to one student who most successfully demonstrates these qualities. Indicators of this could include: • Acting as a Student representative and/or Student Engagement Champion. • Engaging with or acting as a member of the Criminology Society. • Commitment and engagement in classes (positive attitude/personality). • Volunteering for a range of student activities, e.g. open days, applicant evenings, conferences, department events, staff interviews etc. • Positive and active engagement in group work. • Being a positive influence on others. • Being a valued team member (supportive/helpful/team player). • Having leadership potential. • Enhancing the universities commitment to the civic mission by supporting and/or working closely with the wider community to raise the profile of the programme and wider university.	£100 prize money and University prize certificate.
Cyril Oswald Jones Prize	To be eligible for the award the student must have achieved the highest overall mark at Level 6 on the below eligible programme: • LLB (Hons) Law Where more than one student achieves the same highest overall mark on the eligible programme, the prize will be awarded to the student with the highest Dissertation mark in module LAW602 – Law Dissertation.	£1,000 prize money and University prize certificate.
The Dora Roylance Memorial Prize	The Dora Roylance Prize, is offered to the top performing student of the Specialist Community Public Health Nursing (SCPHN) Health Visitor programmes in every university in England, Wales and Northern Ireland.	£100 prize money and University prize certificate.

Doris Irene Hill Book Prize	A penultimate year student in the academic subject area of Education and Childhood and Family Studies from one of the programmes listed below, who demonstrates a commitment to lifelong learning and continual self-improvement • BA (Hons) Education (including Foundation Year) • BA (Hons) Early Childhood Studies	£30 book token and a University prize certificate.
Ede & Ravenscroft Prize	The prize is to be awarded to a student completing his/her first year of study (Level 4) from any Bachelor's Degree who achieved proportionally the highest marks for his/her award. The prize is available to Level 4 Bachelor's Degree students from all subject areas.	Prize money to the value of £1,000 and a University prize certificate.
Emmett Roberts Award	This prize is to be awarded to up to two graduating BA (Hons) Social Work students, who have shown outstanding commitment to service user and carer participation during his/her period of study at the university.	Prize amount to be determined each year – £30 in book tokens and a University prize certificate.
The Future Leader in Football Prize	This prize is to be awarded annually to a final year student (Level 6 or 7) on the below eligible programmes: • BA (Hons) Football and Community Development (Top up) • BSc (Hons) Football Coaching and the Performance Specialist • BSc (Hons) Football Coaching and the Performance Specialist (with Foundation Year) • MSc Football Science and Coaching • MSc Football Science and Coaching (Intensive) This prize is to be awarded to a student who: • Seeks out and volunteers for additional opportunities – for example undertaking pre-season fitness testing with clubs, analysis of matches, commentary on matches, actively engaged in community work to empower people through football etc. • Seeks out their own placement and/or achieves a placement report that is reflective of the significant value of the experience they have gained through the placement. • Shows commitment to excellence within the additional coaching qualifications achieved on the programme.	The prize shall consist of a £50 voucher and a University prize certificate.
Helen Hughes Memorial Prize	Awarded annually to the Level 7 student who has achieved the highest performance of all students graduating from the MSc Biomedical Science programme.	£50 and a University prize certificate.

The Industry Award for Excellence in Games	Awarded to the final year student graduating with the highest overall marks from • BSc (Hons) Computer Game Development (Including with Foundation Year) • BSc (Hons) Computer Game Development (with Industrial Placement) • BSc (Hons) Computer Game Design and Enterprise (Including with Foundation Year) • BSc (Hons) Computer Game Design and Enterprise (with Industrial Placement) • BA (Hons) Game Art (Including with Foundation Year) • BA (Hons) Game Art (with Industrial Placement)	A University prize certificate. £25 Voucher.
The Industry Award for Team Management & Innovation in Games	Awarded to a team of final year graduating student(s) on the • BSc (Hons) Computer Game Development (Including with Foundation Year) • BSc (Hons) Computer Game Development (with Industrial Placement) • BSc (Hons) Computer Game Design and Enterprise (Including with Foundation Year) • BSc (Hons) Computer Game Design and Enterprise (with Industrial Placement) • BA (Hons) Game Art (Including with Foundation Year) • BA (Hons) Game Art (with industrial placement) The team and its eligible members will be defined and agreed as per the submitted team project proposal document. To be eligible for the prize, all team members must meet the minimum 400 work hour requirement as set out in the team project assessment criteria. This prize is to be awarded to the final year student team that demonstrates the highest overall level of project management and innovation as determined by the award judging panel (comprised of the programme team & industry experts). There are three areas of judging criteria: • Individual Student Grades: The panel will consider the overall individual project grades of each team member as evidenced across the 5 elements of project assessment criteria. Grades are determined by both the individual and team JIRA performance data, the performance of all team members at the annual exhibition and quality of all supporting design, analysis and management documentation. • Product Innovation: The panel will consider the innovative quality of the final team game application submitted based on gameplay mechanics, art-style presentation, narrative and design features. • Management & Productivity: The panel will consider the quality of the team production and productivity data. To be eligible for the prize, all team members must demonstrate both quality and adherence to the SCRUM methodology by way of accurate and consistent sprint & burndown data and the logged hours must be accompanied by appropriate supporting evidence.	A University prize certificate. £25 Voucher.

Institution of Engineering and Technology (IET) Final Year Undergraduate Prize	To the final year student (Level 5 or 6) showing outstanding achievement and improvement throughout their studies or the most innovative and original final year project. This prize will be made available to students enrolled on IET accredited Electrical or Electronic Engineering Honours degree programme as indicated below: • BEng(Hons) in Electrical and Electronic Engineering (including with Foundation Year) • BEng (Hons) Aeronautical and Mechanical Engineering (including with Foundation Year) • BEng (Hons) Automotive Engineering (including with Foundation Year) • BEng (Hons) Renewable and Sustainable Engineering (including with Foundation Year) • BEng (Hons) Industrial Engineering (Top up)* • FdEng Industrial Engineering *This programme is only eligible for students who can show progression from another Engineering programme e.g. Fd Eng Industrial Engineering. Direct entry students straight to Level 6 would not be eligible, as they would not meet the criteria.	2 years free graduate membership to the IET and a University prize certificate.
Institution of Mechanical Engineers (IMechE) Undergraduate Project Prize	Awarded to a final year student (Level 5 or 6) who has completed a final year project which shows the most originality and innovation. Eligible students must be enrolled on one of the IMechE accredited Engineering degree programmes: • FdEng Industrial Engineering (Mechanical) • BEng (Hons) Industrial Engineering (Top-up) 'Mechanical' and 'Manufacturing and Production' streams only. • BEng (Hons) Aeronautical Engineering • BEng (Hons) Automotive Engineering • BEng (Hons) Renewable & Sustainable Engineering • BEng (Hons) Aeronautical Engineering (with Industrial Placement) • BEng (Hons) Automotive Engineering (with Industrial Placement) • BEng (Hons) Renewable & Sustainable Engineering (with Industrial Placement) • BEng (Hons) Production Engineering (Degree Apprenticeship) • BEng (Hons) Industrial Engineering Design (Mechanical) (Degree Apprenticeship)	£100 Amazon Voucher and a University prize certificate.
The Jan Jenkins Prize	Awarded to a student who demonstrates clinical excellence in the area of dysphagia, showing strong knowledge, practical skills, and competence in assessment and management, and applies evidence and theory from the classroom to inform and enhance their clinical practice, whether on placement or in simulation settings. • BSc (Hons) Speech and Language Therapy	University prize certificate. £25 Voucher.

John Arbuthnott Scholarship	Awarded to a final year student on any of the programmes listed below judged to have shown outstanding academic achievement and improvement throughout their studies. • BEng (Hons) Aeronautical and Mechanical Engineering (and Foundation Year) • BEng (Hons) Electrical and Electronic Engineering (and Foundation Year and including with Industrial Placement) • BEng (Hons) Automotive Engineering (and Foundation Year and including with Industrial Placement) • BEng (Hons) Renewable and Sustainable Engineering (and Foundation Year and including with Industrial Placement) • BEng (Hons) Industrial Engineering Design (Mechanical) (Degree Apprenticeship) • BEng (Hons) Industrial Engineering Design (Electrical & Electronic) (Degree Apprenticeship) • BEng (Hons) Low Carbon Energy, Efficiency and Sustainability (Degree Apprenticeship) • BEng (Hons) Production Engineering (Degree Apprenticeship)	£100 prize - amount to be determined on an annual basis based on the interest earned on the original prize donation and a University prize certificate.
Julia King Memorial Prize	This prize will be awarded to a student who has demonstrated exceptional character and overcome adversity to complete their studies. Factors which will be taken into account are: a. Demonstration of ability to overcome challenges which are different in nature or greater in extent than those commonly faced by students (for example, these may be related to personal attributes, family circumstances, or exceptional events); b. Inspiring other students so enhancing their learning experience (for example as a leader, role model, or supportive friend); c. Actively engaging with staff to prompt enhancements in the programme and student learning experience (to a greater extent than that normally expected, and through formal or informal routes)	University prize certificate. £25 Voucher.
Lord Jones Prize for Postgraduate Research Students	Awarded to the postgraduate research student who has achieved the best overall performance of all research students graduating in the year.	£50 prize cheque and a University prize certificate.
The National Zoological Society of Wales Bachelor's Degree Prize	This prize is to be awarded to the student graduating with the highest overall marks on one of the below programmes: • BSc (Hons) Animal Behaviour, Welfare and Conservation (Top-Up) • BSc (Hons) Animal Behaviour, Welfare and Conservation Science (Including with Foundation Year) • BSc (Hons) Equine Science and Welfare Management (Including with Foundation Year)	Annual membership to the National Zoological Society and a University prize certificate.
The National Zoological Society of Wales Foundation Degree Prize	This prize is to be awarded to the student graduating with the highest overall marks on one of the below programmes: • FdSc Animal Studies • FdSc Applied Animal Behaviour, Welfare and Conservation (Including Foundation Year) • FdSc Veterinary Nursing • FdSc Canine Behaviour Training and Performance • FdSc Practical Wildlife Management	Annual membership to the National Zoological Society and a University prize certificate.

Occupational Therapy Research Award	The prize will be awarded annually to a Level 6 student who has been nominated and is enrolled on BSc (Hons) Occupational Therapy student graduating with the highest overall marks in the final year module AHP601 Research for Practice.	University prize certificate. £25 Voucher.
Outside In Award	The prize will be awarded annually to a Level 4-6 student who has been nominated and is enrolled on BA (Hons) Social Work programme of study. Factors to be considered when nominating an individual should include commitment to the work of Outside In within the BA Social Work programme, shown by: • attendance at meetings • participation in special projects • helpfulness in classroom activities (e.g. awareness of individuals' access needs) • putting values of respect and inclusion into action	£30 book voucher and a University prize certificate.
Owain Glyndŵr Society Prize	The prize will be awarded to an eligible alumnus who has made an outstanding contribution in any of the following fields: • the promotion of learning and education • the promotion of learning and education through the medium of Welsh • the promotion of Wales • enhancing international links • enterprise and innovation	University prize certificate.
The Peter Excell Innovation in Project Memorial Prize	The prize will be awarded annually to a Level 6 student who has been nominated and is enrolled on one of the following programmes of study; • BSc (Hons) Computing (Including with Foundation Year) • BSc (Hons) Computing (with Industrial Placement) • BSc (Hons) Computing [Degree Apprenticeship] (including with Foundation Year) • BSc (Hons) Computing (Top Up) • BSc (Hons) Computer Science (Including with Foundation year) • BSc (Hons) Computer Science (with Industrial Placement) • BSc (Hons) Computer Science (Top Up) • BSc (Hons) Computer Networks and Security (Including with Foundation year) • BSc (Hons) Computer Networks and Security (with Industrial Placement) • BSc (Hons) Cyber Security (Including with Foundation Year) • BSc (Hons) Cyber Security (with Industrial Placement) • BSc (Hons) Cyber Security [Degree Apprenticeship] (Including with Foundation Year) • BSc (Hons) Applied Cyber Security Factors to be considered when nominating an individual should include the most originality, independence of thought and innovation in their Level 6 final year honours project.	£50 Amazon gift voucher and a University prize certificate.

The Playbook Prize	This prize is to be awarded annually to a final year student (Level 5 or 6) on the below eligible programmes: • BSc (Hons) Sports, Coaching and Fitness (Top Up) • FdSc Sports, Coaching and Fitness Factors to be considered when nominating a student to win this prize should include: • Demonstrating excellence in sport coaching abilities • Showing commitment to the coaching discipline through active engagement in CPD • Acting as a Student Representative and/or NSS Champion • Volunteering for a range of student activities (e.g. open days, applicant evenings, staff interviews) • Showing commitment and engagement in classes (attitude and personality) • Engaging positively and actively in group work • Having a positive influence on others • Participating in peer mentoring • Being a valued team member (supportive, helpful, a team player) • Demonstrating leadership potential • Inspiring fellow students, thereby enhancing their learning experience.	The prize shall consist of a £50 voucher and a University prize certificate.
Pre-Registration Nursing Sylvia Crowe Memorial Prize	The prize will be awarded to one (Level 6) student enrolled on The Pre-registration nursing programme (BN (Hons) Adult Nursing, BN (Hons) Children's Nursing or BN (Hons) Mental Health Nursing), who has demonstrated an outstanding contribution to the to the learning experience of other students in their respective cohorts or an outstanding effort in overcoming personal difficulties to achieve his/her award.	University prize certificate. £25 Voucher.
Professor Alex Carson Psychology Student of the Year Memorial Prize	The prize is to be awarded to an undergraduate student (Level 3 - 6) enrolled on the BSc (Hons) Psychology (including Foundation Year) programmes (from any year of study) who has demonstrated an outstanding commitment to overcoming personal difficulties to achieve success in her/his studies.	University prize certificate. £25 Voucher.
Richard J Smith Prize for Audio Post-Production	To a final year student on any of the programmes listed below who has achieved the highest overall mark in the CMT618 Music and Sound Design for Film module. • BA (Hons) Media Production • BA (Hons) Media Production (Including Foundation Year) • BSc (Hons) Music and Sound Technology • BSc (Hons) Music and Sound Technology (Including Foundation Year)	£50 Amazon voucher and a University prize certificate.
Royal Aeronautical Society Final Year Undergraduate Prize	To the final year student who has demonstrated the most outstanding achievements in that academic year and is studying on one of the following RAeS accredited Honours degree programmes within Engineering: • BEng (Hons) Aeronautical & Mechanical Engineering • BEng (Hons) Aeronautical Engineering	Certificate from RAeS certificate, £100 prize cheque and a University prize certificate.

Royal Society of Biology Academic Achievement Prize	This prize is to be awarded annually to a graduating students (Level 6) on one of the following programmes graduating with the highest overall mark. • BSc (Hons) Equine Science and Welfare Management (Including with Foundation Year) • BSc (Hons) Animal Behaviour, Welfare and Conservation Science (Including with Foundation Year) • FdSc Canine Behaviour Training and Performance • FdSc Practical Wildlife Management	One year's free Associate membership to the Royal Society of Biology and a University prize certificate.
Sally O'Garra Memorial Prize	This prize will be awarded to a final year graduating student (Level 6 or Level 7) from one of the Specialist Community Public Health Nursing (SCPHN) programmes listed below, for inspiring others in the workplace, demonstrating innovation in practice, demonstrating the ability to overcome difficulties in the course of the programme, to gain their achievements and/or inspiring other students or being a support to other learners. • Graduate Diploma Specialist Community Public Health Nursing (Health Visiting) • Graduate Diploma Specialist Community Public Health Nursing (School Nursing) • Postgraduate Diploma in Specialist Community Public Health Nursing (Health Visiting) • Postgraduate Diploma in Specialist Community Public Health Nursing (School Nursing) • Postgraduate Certificate Community Health Studies • MSc Specialist Community Public Health Nursing	Trophy and a University prize certificate.
Shergill Dissertation Prize	The prize will be awarded annually to the Level 7 student who has achieved the highest mark in SCI721 Dissertation: Research Project of all students graduating within that year from the below programmes: • MRes Applied Clinical Research • MRes Applied Biomedical Sciences Research	£100 prize cheque and a University prize certificate.
Stephen Loudon MSc Psychology Prize	The prize is to be awarded to the Masters student graduating with the highest overall dissertation mark (which must be at 70% or above to qualify) from the MSc Psychology (Conversion) programme.	Prize cheque of £1,000 and a University prize certificate.

Turing Prize for Best Overall Student	The prize will be awarded annually to a Level 6 student who has been nominated and is enrolled on one of the following programmes of study; • BSc (Hons) Computing (Including with Foundation Year) • BSc (Hons) Computing with Industrial Placement • BSc (Hons) Computing Degree Apprenticeship (including with Foundation Year) • BSc (Hons) Computing (Top Up) • BSc (Hons) Computer Science (Including with Foundation Year) • BSc (Hons) Computer Science with Industrial Placement • BSc (Hons) Computer Science (Top Up) • BSc (Hons) Computer Networks and Security (Including with Foundation Year) • BSc (Hons) Computer Networks and Security with Industrial Placement • BSc (Hons) Cyber Security • BSc (Hons) Cyber Security with Industrial Placement • BSc (Hons) Cyber Security (Including with Foundation Year) • BSc (Hons) Cyber Security Degree Apprenticeship (Including with Foundation Year) • BSc (Hons) Applied Cyber Security. The award will be determined upon marks based criteria; the highest overall mark at Level 6 on the above, eligible programmes.	£50 Amazon gift voucher and a University prize certificate.
Welsh Branch British Psychological Society Final year Undergraduate Research Project Prize	The prize is to be awarded to a Level 6 student enrolled on the BSc (Hons) Psychology (including Foundation Year) programme who has achieved the best overall performance in the Research Project module of the programme for that year.	Prize cheque to the value of £100 and a University prize certificate.
The Wheeler Prize for Wellbeing, Leadership and Learning	This prize is to be awarded to a Level 7 student from one of the eligible Health and Wellbeing programmes who has demonstrated a deep and reflective understanding of wellbeing through their academic studies and professional practice. They exemplify leadership for wellbeing through their commitment to ethical and compassionate practice, personal growth, and the promotion of wellbeing for themselves, others, and the wider community.	£30 book token and a University prize certificate.
Wrexham Business School Award for Collaboration and Impact	This prize is to be awarded to a student from one of the eligible Business programmes who has demonstrated exceptional teamwork and collaborative practice, making meaningful contributions to group projects, partnerships, and peer learning. They have exhibited strong leadership, communication, and interpersonal skills, supporting fellow students to succeed and thrive, while embodying professionalism, inclusivity, and commitment in all collaborative activities. Their contributions have had a measurable impact on academic, professional, or community-based initiatives.	£50 voucher and a University prize certificate.
Wrexham Business School Award for Enterprise and Innovation	This prize is to be awarded to a student from one of the eligible Business programmes who has demonstrated creative and innovative thinking through the development and implementation of original ideas, solutions, or initiatives. They have exhibited an entrepreneurial mind-set, applying innovation effectively within academic, professional, or extracurricular contexts, while demonstrating initiative, leadership, and strong problem-solving capabilities. Their work has shown clear potential for sustainable impact and wider value.	£50 voucher and a University prize certificate.

Wrexham Business School Award for Personal Growth and Development	This prize is to be awarded to a student from one of the eligible Business programmes who has demonstrated significant growth in academic engagement, performance, and confidence throughout their studies. They have shown resilience in overcoming challenges, actively applied feedback to inform learning, and committed to self-development and continuous improvement. Through participation in academic, extracurricular, and professional activities, they have contributed to a positive and supportive learning environment, fostering collaboration and encouragement among peers.	£50 voucher and a University prize certificate.
--	--	--

Please note these prizes were correct at the time of publication and are subject to change.