Learning and Teaching Strategies

The learning and teaching strategy are grounded in the University's commitment to an Active Learning Framework (ALF) so that learning will be both accessible and active and include synchronous and a-synchronous elements. Face to face classroom teaching will be supplemented by online lectures wherein students will be expected to complete activities such as watching Panopto videos; undertake Other Indicative Reading; complete quizzes and exercises; and post comment for a-synchronous debate. These activities will be the subject of formative feedback by the module tutor. Added to this, will be access to staff who provide presence, challenge and support for student learning and can relate learning to real world uses.

Indicative Syllabus Outline

LO1 - Evaluate Multi-Agency Collaboration in Public Protection, Offender Rehabilitation, and Community Safety

- Examine the importance of taking a multi-agency approach to public protection incidents.
- Agencies who may be able to offer support and the support they can provide at public protection incidents.
- The Multi-Agency Risk Assessment Conference (MARAC) referral process and Multi-Agency Public Protection Arrangements (MAPPA).
- Involvement of multi-agency professionals in building comprehensive victim risk/needs assessments.
- Role of the Youth Offender Service and Youth Justice Board and other agencies in diverting young people away from crime.
- Reducing the possibility of offending
- Potential impacts of other interventions and diversions

- Importance of effective collaboration with Police and Crime Commissioners, partners, and wider agencies.

LO2: Critically analyse the Impact of Gangs and Organised Crime on Vulnerable Individuals

- Importance of understanding the impacts of targeted criminal activity on vulnerable individuals, or those at risk of harm, including:
 - Psychology of a vulnerable person or person at risk of harm which makes them an attractive target for gangs or organised crime groups.
 - Effect it has on the vulnerable person.
 - Situations which the vulnerable people may be subject to or find themselves involved in.
 - Strategies and disruption tactics that could be employed.

LO3: Critically assess the complexity of Victim Management Post-Judicial Proceedings and the Dynamics of Abuse in Public Protection

- Why it is important to enhance victim and witness satisfaction in their dealings with the police and CJS (policing by consent), including the duty under the Victims Code.
- Impact of the criminal justice system on victims and witnesses
- Understanding correlations in suspect / offender patterns e.g. age / offending curve.
- Considerations associated with the suspects / offenders of abuse / public protection incidents:
- Terms and offences associated with public protection, rape and serious sexual offences (RASSO) and violence against women and girls (VAWG)
- Importance of challenging the myths, misconceptions and stereotypes associated with these offences.
- Data relating to the prevalence and nature of public protection offences.
