Module aims

This module has an emphasis on establishing relationships with students within the social work programme at the beginning of their studies based on principles of coproduction by:

- practising communication skills with students, such as active listening, confidentiality, boundary-setting, and reflection
- engaging in 1-1 conversations with students to enable them to practise their communication skills
- understanding the principles of the Equality Act

Module Learning Outcomes - at the end of this module, students will be able to:

1	Work with a student 1-1 to complete a project, applying the 'start to finish' principle of coproduction
2	Use expertise through experience to engage 1-1 with students
3	Attendance at 1-1 sessions with students
