Module aims

This module aims to develop students' critical understanding of innovative methods and approaches in education, with a focus on creativity and developing professional practice.

Students will apply their understanding of contemporary theories, strategies, and practices that challenge traditional models of teaching, learning, and assessment.

By engaging with contemporary academic research and reflective practice, students will identify and implement innovative approaches within their educational or professional context.

The module culminates in a presentation of their findings, where students critically evaluate the impact of their approaches on learners and stakeholders.

Module Learning Outcomes

At the end of this module, students will be able to:

1	Critically evaluate contemporary research on creativity and innovation in education, linking it to your professional context.
2	Critically evaluate how the roles of teachers and learners evolve when implementing creative and/or innovative approaches within professional practice.
3	Critically evaluate strategies for implementing creative and innovative methods in your teaching practice.
4	Drawing upon contemporary literature, create an academic poster synthesising innovation and professional practice, with a focus on practical implementation in your teaching context.

Assessment

Indicative Assessment Tasks:

Students will research and critically evaluate the changing pedagogy of the classroom in relation to relevant literature on creative and innovative approaches in the classroom.

Students will create and deliver an academic poster to their peers which draws upon contemporary research.

Building upon research, students will demonstrate how they could implement the creative/innovative practice in their professional placement setting. (15 minutes)

Learning and Teaching Strategies

The module is taught through a combination of lectures and workshops. An active and inclusive approach is used to engage learners in the topics and will involve individual, group work and flipped learning experiences aligned to the university's Active Learning Framework (ALF), The approach offers students a flexible and adaptive learning experience that can accommodate a range of options that includes both on campus learning and remote learning where appropriate. The Moodle VLE and other on-line materials and resources will be available to support learning. ALF offers a balance between the classroom elements and digitally enabled activity incorporating flexible and accessible resources and flexible and accessible feedback to support learning.

Welsh Elements

Assignments and module handbooks can be provided in Welsh upon request. Work can also be submitted in Welsh upon request.
