Module Aims

At the end of this stage students will be able to carry out simple everyday tasks in French. The aim of this module is to enable students to revise and expand skills already acquired in speaking, listening, reading and writing to a level which allows them to develop greater fluency in French. The main focus for the module is the development of linguistic skills and acquisition of socio-cultural awareness. This module is for those with some knowledge of the language, up to A2.1 in the CEFR.

On completion of this module, students will be able to communicate in routine tasks and short social exchanges and will have reached a level between A2.2 and B1.1 in the Common European Framework of Reference.

Module Learning Outcomes - at the end of this module, students will be able to

1	Demonstrate listening and speaking skills in French in areas of most immediate relevance (e.g. basic personal and family information, shopping, local geography, employment) at CEFR A2.2-B1.1 level.
2	Demonstrate reading and writing skills in French in areas of most immediate relevance (e.g. basic personal and family information, shopping, local geography, employment) at CEFR A2.2-B1.1 level.
3	Demonstrate basic socio-cultural awareness of Francophone countries by using appropriate linguistic strategies in communication.
