Module aims

The module will explore the ways in which the use of evidence can inform professional practice.

Through critically reviewing relevant literature, students will question current thinking and practices within their own context and subject discipline to enhance and improve learning and teaching.

This module prepares students to develop the skills, knowledge and understanding for teaching their subject in the post-compulsory sector to support the ongoing development of their curriculum.

Module Learning Outcomes - at the end of this module, students will be able to:

1	Provide a rationale to justify an area to research associated with learning and teaching in the post-compulsory sector.
2	Critically Review relevant literature, policy documentation or new initiatives within the chosen area of post-compulsory education and training.
3	Present the impact of evidence-based practice on supporting all learners through a critical lens.

Learning and Teaching Strategies

The module is taught through a combination of lectures and workshops. An active and inclusive approach is used to engage learners in the topics and will involve individual, group work and flipped learning experiences aligned to the university's Active Learning Framework (ALF). The approach offers students a flexible and adaptive learning experience that can accommodate a range of options that includes both on campus learning and remote learning where appropriate.

The Moodle VLE and other on-line materials and resources will be available to support learning. ALF offers a balance between the classroom elements and digitally enabled activity incorporating flexible and accessible resources and flexible and accessible feedback to support learning.
