Section 2 – programme details

2.1 Aims of the programme

The Foundation Year is designed to support a wide range of students from different backgrounds and with non-standard academic qualifications to enter HE. The year provides a vehicle for students who have not achieved the level of entry qualifications / UCAS points required to study the traditional 3-year undergraduate degree model.

- to provide a common core of academic and employability skills sufficient to prepare students for subsequent study and academic success at undergraduate level
- to provide students with core underpinning knowledge, skills and understanding in key areas of contemporary issues.
- to provide underpinning subject-related skills and knowledge in key areas required for undergraduate study in specified subject disciplines, including Numeracy, Science and Communication as and where appropriate.
- to provide generic skills and academic knowledge to support student confidence and discipline as appropriate for HE study.
- to provide appropriate grounding, in terms of knowledge and skills, to support progression into degree level study in the specialist subject area of the intended degree award.

The Integrated Foundation Year is designed with a generic structure to the modules with a mix of core and optional modules. There is a focus on the preparation for study at level 4, 5 and 6, a development of self-awareness and a focus on building resilience to help students manage their study against their other life commitments. Students are also introduced to developing their career plans from the start of the foundation year as well as exploring working in Wales and the Welsh context. Students will be supported by their programme teams through personal tutorials to help them to feel linked to their degree programme area.

2.2 Programme structure and diagram, including delivery schedule

The optimal optional module choice will be made through discussion with the personal tutor, who will be from the pathway programme team. The meeting to discuss the most suitable pathway will take place early in semester 1 and will be decided based on the student's entry profile, requirements of the core programme of study and their proposed career pathway.

2.4 Learning and teaching strategy

The learning and teaching strategy has been developed in line with WGU's Active Learning Framework (ALF), Strategy for Supporting Student Learning and Achievement (SSSLA), and with consideration of key employability skills and capabilities. It is flexible, engaging, dynamic, responsive and supportive, taking into account the diverse backgrounds of students and the demands of the wider professional landscape. Essentially, a 'blended' learning and teaching strategy will be employed whereby students will be required to attend face to face learning opportunities on campus, as well as to complete directed study activities provided virtually.

Face to Face Learning

Face to face learning will take the form of a range of engaging and interactive sessions, including lectures, seminars and workshops in both indoor and outdoor spaces. The sessions will deliver core module content and include individual and group work, drawing upon case studies and problem-based learning. Wherever possible, face to face learning will be recorded for students to revisit via the Virtual Learning Environment (VLE).

Virtual Learning

Virtual learning will take place via a range of platforms including the VLE and Microsoft Teams. Asynchronous learning activities will include a range of 'bite sized' tasks including videos, recorded lectures, quizzes, discussion forums, workbooks, readings, galleries and virtual visits. Synchronous learning activities will involve discussions, case studies, reflections, problem-based learning and simulation, and will wherever appropriate be recorded for students to revisit via the VLE.

Tutorials

Tutorials will take place both face to face and virtually, on a one to one and group basis. Tutorials will take an active and empowering approach, with preparatory tasks and with students encouraged to ask questions, think critically, and take control of their learning. Recognising the greater support requirements of level 3 students and the need for them to have a sense of connectedness to their core programme whilst undertaking a generic year, a higher intensity of support from their core programme team will be encouraged. This may take the form of additional group tutorials during the semester aligned to module content and/or opportunities to link with practitioners within their subject area.

2.5 Assessment strategy

As Level 3 provision, assessment strategies are designed to be supportive and to build confidence, whilst also ensuring that students engage with core material, develop the core and subject skills required for progression into and successful completion of undergraduate studies, and also reward and incentivise students.

Assessment tasks might include portfolio, presentations, practical and oral assessment which promote authentic assessment and encourage the deeper learning that is a key feature of higher education. Opportunities for formative feedback will be provided both through VLE based asynchronous learning activities which support the weekly teaching and through the submission of draft sections of work as per University Formative Assessment and Feedback Guidelines.
