

Software Engineering Summer School

Is this a stand-alone module resulting in a Wrexham University Certificate	No
Is this a group of modules resulting in a short course and transcript only	Yes
Awarding Body	Wrexham University
Programme delivered by	FACE and Language Centre
Location of delivery	Wrexham, Plas Coch campus
Mode of study	Full time
Length of study	12-weeks (8 weeks delivery + 4 weeks assessment)
Language of study	English
Faculty	FACE
Implementation dates	May 2025
Entry requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> anyone aged 18 or over who is interested in learning more about Computing at least 1 year of study at Higher Education level in a STEM related subject. international students need to demonstrate B1 level (or equivalent) in English Language to join the Programme.
What is the intended assessment board point for the course	Sep Board
Date of ASPC approval	11/03/2025
Validated period of delivery	5 years
Alignment to any PSRB?	n/a
Brief para on course content, who is the course intended for etc	The software engineering summer school will help develop students the necessary skill sets to continue studying a subject they enjoy or gain new subject knowledge and as preparation for further study. Students will study 3 modules covering a software engineering related field. Furthermore, they will study 1 English language module designed to address the English language needs of non-native speakers studying or working in the STEM field.
Programme structure and links to module specifications	COM469 Introduction to Programming COM478 Software Development Methodologies COM440 Web Design and Development LAN413 English for Professional Purposes Intermediate Level